FAMILY COURT SERVICES CLIENT COMPLAINT FORM

We at Family Court Services appreciate your taking time to inform us of your complaint about the services you received through our office. We encourage you to notify us of your complaint as early as possible. We are committed to responding to your concerns in a prompt and thorough manner. We are interested only in helping you and the courts make the best decisions possible to meet the needs and interests of your children.

We encourage all clients with complaints about their experience with Family Court Services to first talk directly with the individuals involved in order to try to work things out. Many complaints about child custody recommending counseling (mediation) and evaluation services are a result of misunderstanding or miscommunication, and many of these misunderstandings can be worked out through direct, honest discussion.

Formal Complaint Process:

If you want an investigation of and response to a complaint, you must submit the complaint in writing and provide a copy of the written complaint to the attorney or self-represented person on the other side. The other parent (self-represented) or their attorney will have the opportunity to submit a written comment to your complaint. Once the complaint has been investigated, a written response will be prepared and sent to the complaining person and copied to all the attorneys/self-represented persons in the case.

Attached is a set of questions that will help us better understand the nature of your complaint about Family Court Services staff and/or procedures. Please complete the form and return it to the Family Court Services office in which your child recommending counseling or evaluation took place. Your complaint will be reviewed thoroughly by the Supervisor of Family Court Services in a timely manner. If your complaint concerns the Supervisor of Family Court Services, your complaint should be submitted to the Court Executive Officer for the Superior Court of California, County of Sierra.

CLIENT COMPLAINT FORM

Below is some general information that may help you understand how Family Court Services and the courts work.

1. Responsibility for making official orders about your parenting arrangements rests with the court. No one but a judge can order any child custody or visitation arrangement. Family Court Services staff may advise the court regarding what they think would be best for your children, but they do not make a court order or decision. The judge of your Court is the only person authorized to order a child custody or visitation arrangement.
2. Family Court Services cannot reverse or change a court-ordered parenting plan. Only a judge can change the court order. If you are concerned about the custody or visitation orders that were made by a judge, you must make your appeal directly to the court for a review of the case. Your attorney or the court clerk's office can tell you how to appeal a court decision.
3. A complaint about how you were treated in Family Court Services or about the procedures used can be addressed directly by the Family Court Services office.
4. Submitting a complaint through the use of the attached form is not an appeal for a review or reversal of court orders that have been made in your case. An appeal is a legal process over which Family Court Services has no control. Use of this form is, however, the proper way to express your grievances about the way in which Family Court Services handled your child custody mediation or evaluation.
5. To process your complaint, the Supervisor of Family Court Services will:
 - ❖ Review your complaint.
 - ❖ Talk with the staff who have been involved with your case.
 - ❖ Determine whether your complaint is a matter that Family Court Services can address or a legal matter only the courts can address.
 - ❖ Contact you to discuss the next steps.
 - ❖ Respond to your concerns in writing.
